

We would like to respectfully request that you do not close down the independent ISP providers. They are local and easy to deal with and we have enough monopolies in this country without adding another monopoly to our internet services.